FOUR KEYS
FOR PASSING ON FAITH
 in the home and in the congregation

- Caring Conversations
- Rituals and Traditions
- Devotional Practices
- Service

Parish Faith Formation Requirements:

- Ensure you and your child attends Mass every Sunday!
- Make reception of the Sacraments a priority in your family
- Practice your Catholic faith and help your child follow the teachings of the Church in daily life
- Verbally support the efforts of parish faith formation leaders
- Support and comply with the guidelines of the program

9th, 10th & 11th Grade Faith Formation Overview

9th, 10th and 11th GRADES...Will begin an apprenticeship in the Christian Life... called "YDisciple".

WHAT IS YDisciple?

YDisciple is a tool to multiply small group discipleship with teens in any parish. In order to mobilize as many adults as possible to facilitate small group discipleship with teens, YDisciple's online platform delivers practical training, video studies, activity sessions, and parent resources. YDisciple meets the fundamental needs of teenagers through a model that is relational, relevant and parent-driven.

High School Faith Formation Dates and Times...To Be Announced. Parents are required to attend orientation and that date will be announced soon. We ask that you complete the registration forms as this time and you will be notified soon with details. Thank you for your patience and commitment to the faith of your children.

Policy:

All St. Peter Faith Formation and Sacramental Preparation students must attend all scheduled classes/groups/retreats and meet the requirements for their programs. All Public school & Non-Catholic Private school students in 1st –11th grade are required to attend. All Catholic School & Catholic Homeschool students for 10th & 11th grade are required to participate in the parish Sacramental program.

Attendance:

All Teens in 9th – 11th grades seeking the Sacrament of Confirmation are required to attend all scheduled events and group gatherings, including the retreats -TBA. Parents are to attend, where required, parent meetings.

Approved Absences are those that due to emergencies and have been reported to the Faith Formation secretary. Funerals or doctors' visits that mandate your attendance are considered emergencies. You must submit written documentation to jody@sprcc.org for it to be considered an approved excuse.

Remind:

You must be enrolled in REMIND. This is the only way we can keep directly in touch with you. It is a great system that allows us to send out text messages to keep you informed! This messaging tool helps us share important updates and reminders with students and parents. If you have not enrolled in remind, please follow the attached instructional form to get you started. Subscribe by text, email or using the REMIND app. If you are not sure if you are enrolled, it will recognize that you have already enrolled and will not enroll you again.

If you are making your Confirmation this year, you must enroll in the 11th Grade Confirmation Year Remind as well as the 9-11 Remind.
